

Waiver of recourse

The undersigned

Declares to be aware of the serious risks inherent to the practice of motorsport, which, by their very nature, can never be fully secure, and accepts freely these risks; without limit, even out of competition Wishes to participate in a karts session, under his own responsibility, at his own risks and peril.

Irrevocably renounces for himself and all his assignees, all recourse in any capacity whatsoever (except intentional misconduct), against any organizer, owner, or operator of the site or of a vehicle, driver, or any other participant, or their official organs, employees or volunteers, as well as their insurers. This exemption from liability is true regardless of the cause of action which might be invoked, the damage being or not the direct or indirect consequence of a fault or negligence, even with injuries or death, damage to people or properties.

Agrees to reimburse the damage in the event of accidents involving him.

Agrees to respect in all circumstances the general, technical and specific regulations, the official, injunctions as well as those from the organizers of operators of the site.

Agrees to refrain from any behavior likely to obstruct a driver or any other person.

The French version of the "waiver of recourse" "Abandon de recours" prevails.
